

The Ormerod - Access Statement for Quality Bed and Breakfast.

Introduction

We aim to cater for the general basic needs of all visitors in our 10 Room Bed & Breakfast. Wheelchair access is possible but strictly limited due to the historical nature of our building. If you have any specific requirements, please call us for assistance on 01282 423255.

Pre-Arrival

- There is a bus stop across the road with frequent service.
- There are 2 train stations (Burnley Central and Burnley Barracks) within a 5 minute short car journey.
- There are many local Taxi services available and if required we can make a booking with them for you.
- For room and services information we have a website.
www.theormerod.co.uk
- You may contact us by telephone, fax or email.

Arrival & Car Parking Facilities

- On arrival to our Bed & Breakfast there is a single entrance gate, which has a step 15cm high and 117cm wide. It is open 24 hours whilst the B&B operates. The surface pathway is solid concrete paving with a slightly elevated incline towards the main entrance.
- Although there are no marked parking bays, roadside parking is available round to the side of the building.
- We can assist guests with luggage if required.
- The main bus station and Town Centre is a 10 minute brisk walk from the Bed & Breakfast.

Main Entrance & Reception

- The front door to our main entrance has a step that is 17cm high.
- The Doorway is 82cm wide and leads through to a short internal vestibule door 75cm wide leading you directly into the Bed and Breakfast Reception hallway & stairs.
